Continued Prosecution Application

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 was filed in this application after appeal to the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences, but prior to a decision on the appeal. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114 and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the appeal has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114 and prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 5/5/05 has been entered.

Claims 20-44 are pending.

The rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, are withdrawn in view of applicant's arguments.

The rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, are withdrawn in view of applicant's amendments.

Response to Arguments

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Art Unit: 1642

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 20-44 remain rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO 00/09160 or US 6455043 (priority to 8/11/98) in view of applicant's admission on page 18, line 11 to page 21. The reasons for this rejection are of record in the paper mailed 5/3/04.

Applicant argues that the reference gives no details "regarding the dose of IL-2 and dose of anti-CD20 antibody that are to be administered in combination" in the Phase I trials. As stated in the rejection "on pages 25-28 of the WO and columns 13-15 of the patent, the references disclose a variety of different low doses effective in treatment. These include 2 mIU/m² (as disclosed by Lauria et al) or 0.45 mIU/m² as disclosed by Caligiuru et al (col. 14, line 27 and 48-50 of the patent). Thus the low doses disclosed in the reference read on applicant's low dose. Therefore, in view of effectiveness of the low doses, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to use the low doses mentioned by the reference in a combination treatment with the expected benefits of treating NHL." Additionally, as stated in the rejection "the dose of IDEC-C2B8 used ranges from 125-375 mg/m² (col. 8, line 60-64 of patent and page 16 of WO)". Thus, details for the dosages of each compound are given and these dosages read on the ranges provided by applicant. A fair reading of the reference and absent objective evidence to the contrary one of ordinary skill in the art would recognize that when both compounds are used in combination that the dosages used would be similar to those used separately. And this is exactly what applicant does in the instant specification.

Art Unit: 1642

Applicant believes that the mention of the Phase I and II trials in col. 13-15 are mere suggestions and that they were not done. Applicant further searches the database to find a detailed disclosure of the trials and, when applicant cannot find this data, applicant cites several opinions as to why this could be. These are merely opinions and not objective evidence. Applicant also point to a reference by the author of the patent, which was not found. The author did not mention the trials and again applicant gives several opinions as to why this could be. Since applicant is not the author of the reference or the patent, applicant is not in the position to provide objective evidence to show why the trials were not mentioned. Since every patent is presumed valid, and there is no objective evidence of record to show otherwise, the Examiner has no reason to believe that the trials did not occur.

Conclusion

This is a RCE of applicant's earlier Application No. 09/815597. All claims are drawn to the same invention claimed in the earlier application and could have been finally rejected on the grounds and art of record in the next Office action if they had been entered in the earlier application. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL even though it is a first action in this case. See MPEP § 706.07(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no, however, event will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
